Although a large area, generally, most people who say ‘Turtle Town’ are specifically referring to Maluaka Beach. Why? Because Maluaka is the best snorkeling beach in the Turtle Town Maui area! Calm blue water filled with fish and marine life all along the beach. Well, technically, the fish aren’t along the sand, but we’ll get to that later. As its name suggests, Turtle Town Maui is known for its high population of Hawaiian green sea turtles. For being such a great snorkeling beach, Maluaka doesn’t have as many people as some of Maui’s other better known beaches.

Most of the people there are guests from the Westin Maui Prince Hotel, which overlooks the beach. So don't worry, you'll have plenty of sand to yourself.
